

Get to Know These Websites!

Familiarizing yourself with the following websites will help you keep ahead of the “planning for future” game! These will be updated, so check back, now and then.

The College Board

www.collegeboard.com

The College Board is a non profit educational organization that helps students, parents, and educators, with educational planning. This is the website where students sign up for SAT tests, find study materials, and even planning aids for college and career. Check out the “Plan for College” tab at the top of the home page.

As a sophomore, once you have taken the PSAT you will have free access to a link on the College Board website called MyRoad which is a college and career planner.

The ACT

www.act.org

The ACT Organization is another, independent non-profit organization that provides research, and testing materials for education needs and workforce needs. This is the website where students sign up to take the ACT test.

Coming soon to Hebron → Free access to Discover – a comprehensive college and career planning website, sponsored by the ACT Organization. Check out: <http://www.act.org/discover/>

College Confidential

www.collegeconfidential.com/

The College Confidential website allows students to begin the process of college exploration. It is especially helpful to parents and students who are exploring college options for the first time.

Texas Hot Jobs

www.texashotjobs.org/

This website is the gateway to explore exciting health-related jobs in Texas. There are inventories, activities, and further research this are available to students and parents who are interested in beginning the search for the job that fits best. Check out the links to career exploration!

